

150 mph Winds Move Into Central Florida

1 Dead As Storm Hits 'Gold Coast'

Miami, Fla., Aug. 26—(AP)—A powerful hurricane pounded the heart of Florida tonight after smashing the southeast "gold coast" with 150 mile an hour winds.

The center of the whirling monster was near Canal Point on Lake Okechobee but still hammered that lakeside town and West Palm Beach, 40 miles to the east with 150 mile an hour gusts and 125 miles sustained velocity.

Hurricane warnings were hoisted north of Titusville to St. Augustine, and northeast storm warnings from Fernandina, Fla., to Charleston, S.C., extending further along the Atlantic coast.

The hurricane probably will move north northward through the Florida peninsula, the weather bureau said. That would send the winds smashing over tens of thousands of acres of citrus now near the harvest stage.

Crops May Escape
The rich farming area around Lake Okechobee may not suffer heavy crop damage, since most fall and winter vegetables are not yet planted.

The hurricane probably will lose force during the next 12 to 24 hours, but dangerous winds will prevail over much of the Florida peninsula, especially the eastern half, a 9 p.m. (CST) advisory said.

Weather bureau instruments at West Palm Beach were ripped away when the big blow passed at that locality, the Red Cross was informed.

The hurricane struck Okechobee at 104 miles an hour and stripped off the wind register at Belle Glade at this velocity, the Red Cross was informed.

Luther Jones, publisher of the Belle Glade Herald, was quoted as exclaiming as he talked with the Red Cross:

"There goes the WSWN radio tower."

Jones said more than 1,000 persons were in storm shelter in the rich garden spot.

Many Homes Unroofed
Many homes and at least two schools were reported unroofed at West Palm Beach. About 100 refugees in Commission and Westgate schools were removed to other shelters during the storm.

A youth was drowned at Miami when he attempted to save his sailboat. He was Andrew Jonkman, 20, formerly of Paterson, N.J.

Two women were reported injured in West Palm Beach. Mrs. Chester Martin was cut by flying glass and Mrs. Ella Mae Womack suffered a broken arm and a possible broken leg in an automobile accident.

The roof of the Palm Theater blew off. Radio station WJNO said its tower at Riviera was blown down. Power was off in the Palm Beach area and few telephones were working as the storm smashed the coast and headed west northwest of northwest.

The Miami weather bureau said in a 7 p.m. (CST) advisory that the "eye" of the doughnut-shaped monster passed inland at Delray Beach, Calm reached West Palm Beach airport at 6:30 p.m. (CST).

The storm continued to move about 15 miles an hour and the center was expected to pass near Lake Okechobee. Dangerous winds already have been reported from the rich farming section around the big lake.

Winds instruments at the West Palm Beach airport blew away after recording 110 miles per hour with gusts up to 135 miles. An unofficial report from Palm Beach said highest winds there was 135 miles.

The Palm Beach county courthouse was damaged. Shattered glass, fallen trees and tangled wires littered streets in the palm beaches and in communities along the coast south to Fort Lauderdale.

Police called the death an apparent suicide. They said they learned Ory checked into the hotel yesterday in an attempt to effect a reconciliation with his divorced wife, Augusta, also staying at the hotel. They were unable to locate her immediately.

Among the doctor's effects were several framed diplomas indicating he was graduated from the University of Illinois in 1940.

There also was a diploma from the Chicago Institute of Psycho-analysis and a physician and surgeon's certificate from the state of California.

A tag on the handle of the suitcase gave the address of 1322 North Michigan Blvd., Chicago, police said.

Report Living Costs Down Again In July

Washington, Aug. 26—(AP)—Living costs edged downward again. That's what the government reported today in releasing its latest consumers price index. It showed a living expense decline of six-tenths of one per cent between mid-June and mid-July.

The drop came mainly because of lower prices for food, wearing apparel and house furnishings. Rents and miscellaneous goods and services went up slightly during the month.

The government index, prepared by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is always necessarily a month behind.

The index, however, stands 28.4 per cent higher than it did when price controls were on, and 10.9 per cent above the pre-war price level.

The index showed that food prices dropped 1.3 per cent from June to July this year. This was seven per cent less than a year earlier. Clothing prices declined five-tenths of one per cent, and house furnishings three-tenths of one per cent during the month.

Seven Lost As U. S. Sub Sinks In Arctic

Oslo, Norway, Aug. 26—(AP)—The United States submarine Cochino exploded, burned and sank in Arctic waters early today.

One member of the Cochino's complement, a civilian technician, was lost, and six navy submariners aboard a sister ship, the Tusk, perished during rescue operations. Heavy seas swept them overboard. Fire was enlisted men and one a lieutenant. The Cochino's 78 officers and men were saved.

The two vessels, together with the submarines Toro and Cossair, were on cold-water training maneuvers when an explosion in the Cochino's battery room sent the American craft to the bottom.

The four subs, temporarily assigned to U. S. naval forces in European waters, left Portsmouth, Eng., Aug. 12.

The Tusk put in at Hammerfest, in northern Norway, with the survivors of the blast after having been met at sea by Norwegian naval and air forces under Maj. Gen. H. J. Riser-Larsen, famed for his Arctic flights. They brought medical supplies.

Commander William Porter, U. S. attaché at Hammerfest, told reporters in a telephone call to Oslo, that the Cochino was on a "routine cruise" outside of Norwegian territorial waters at the time of the mishap.

He did not, however, give the exact position and there was no indication that the undersea craft were approaching Soviet waters. Porter said the cause of the accident was not known.

One of the survivors was reported seriously injured. Four others were described as suffering burns. They were taken first to an infirmary in Hammerfest and later returned to the Tusk.

Mile-A-Day Tractor Fast At Tree Planting

Washington, Aug. 26—(AP)—Lan- gaud Louie, the mile-a-day tractor, crept placidly today into a speed-mad world. Let others boast of their super- sonic jet planes and rocket ships. The agriculture department's soil conservation beams fondly on its dawdling hauler with the hookworm crawler.

Louie's job is planting trees. And there's no hurry—given—about planting trees. Nevertheless, Louie does it faster than it's ever been done before. And he does it fast be- cause he goes so slow.

This is one machine, at least, that the Russians didn't invent. It was developed by Tom Bradley, who is in charge of the conservation serv- ice's tree nursery near Zanerstown, Ohio.

Bradley needed something to pull the transplanting machines, which transfer baby trees from their seed- beds to nursery rows. An operator stationed on each machine feeds the tiny seedlings into the proper slots. But if the machine is hauled too fast, the operators miss, or the seed- lings are planted too far apart.

The nursery manager got out his wrenches and set the engine of a tractor just far enough forward on its frame so he could introduce an automobile transmission unit into the power train. He threw both transmissions into low gear and stepped on the gas.

Success! The contraption ambled off to 10 feet per minute, or the approx- imate velocity of a jalopy with three misfiring cylinders in a traffic jam.

Slow but powerful, the tractor hauls five transplanting units. A driver aided by five skilled workers can set the young trees into the nursery rows at the rate of 10,000 an hour.

He Banked $120,000 Of $30,000

Washington, Aug. 26—(AP)—Talkative John Maragon, mys- terious man about Wash- ington, grew suddenly silent today when called on to tell how he banked $120,000 during five years in which he reported an income of about $30,000.

With threats of perjury and in- come tax prosecution hanging over his head, the friend of President Truman's army aide, Maj. Gen. Har- ry H. Vaughan, stood firmly on his constitutional rights.

He wouldn't talk.

Gets In A Rut
For 30 frustrating minutes, sen- ators hopefully tried to prod a pos- itive answer from the naty, well- pressed Maragon. And at least 26 times they got this:

"On the advice of counsel, I re- fuse to answer the question on the grounds that my answer might im- plicate me."

The Senate investigations sub- committee particularly wanted to check Maragon's income.

It had heard earlier that Maragon had testified, under oath, that his income over a five-year period to- talled only around $30,000. Yet dur- ing this same period, committee in- vestigator Carmine S. Bolino said, Maragon made deposits of $119,806- 61 in checking accounts.

He said Maragon had not listed all these funds on his income tax returns.

"A good deal of information" has been turned over to the internal revenue bureau, Bolino said, and he thought the bureau planned to "fol- low through."

Charges Perjury
"This is a clear cut case of per- jury," said Senator Mundt (R-SD), "unless Mr. Maragon can clear things up."

What about this? asked 71-year- old, frock-coated Chairman Hoes (D-NC). Maragon refused to an- swer.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) wanted to know more about Maragon's relations with Vaughan, who re- peatedly—testimony has shown—pulled strings to help Maragon.

Maragon refused to answer.

Vaughan will have his chance Tuesday to tell his side of the story. Undoubtedly he will be asked why Maragon had—or left the impression that he had—so much influence.

As recently as last May or June, the committee was told today, army officials had the idea that Maragon was acting as a go-between for the White House and Secretary of De- fense Johnson's office.

Not Disturbed
As for Maragon, if he was dis- turbed by the senators' questions, he didn't show it. Occasionally he smil- ed; always he smoked. A cloud of cigarette smoke constantly hung over him.

Born on an island in the Aegean sea, he has never lost his accent, and it was especially noticeable in his appearance. Then he stumbled occasionally as he read his own sen- tence. Later he got it down fine and sailed right through it.

Hoes pointed out at the start that under the constitution, no man is compelled to give evidence against himself. And Maragon, sitting head to head with his lawyer, Myron G. Ehrlich, took advantage of his rights.

As the inevitable answer floated down—"on the advice of counsel I refuse"—Senator Mundt (R-SD) once butted in to say:

"I have a question I think prob- ably the witness can answer, to break the monotony of your answer. 'Do you know General Harry Vaughan?'"

"Yes," said Maragon, and every- one laughed, including Maragon. Mundt's next query was:

"Have you ever been associated with General Harry Vaughan in any activities?"

This put Maragon back in the groove. Again he refused to answer.

So he phoned a neighbor in Miami this morning to finish his hurricane chores. The phone call cost $2.39.

HOFFMAN CRACKS THE WHIP

Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Co-operation Administrator, has laid it on the line hard to the 19 Marshall Plan countries. He told them flatly they aren't doing enough to earn dollars in the American market.

And he led them to believe that if they don't show more progress soon in unifying Europe economically, they are going to have a hard time getting ECA funds from Congress next year.

Words from Hoffman on this subject carry a lot of weight, for he's a staunch friend of the European recovery program. It is not as if Senator Wherry, Republican floor leader, were talking.

Hoffman's blunt remarks had particular point for Britain. In an effort to solve its "dollar crisis," Britain has curtailed imports rather than sought to expand exports. He said that is exactly the reverse of the proper course to follow to close the dollar gap in Europe.

He placed at $4,000,000,000 the annual amount of imports from dollar sources that an economically healthy Europe should need. Current earnings in dollars by the ECA nations would pay for only about $1,250,000,000 of this total, Hoffman noted. But he insisted:

"I think it is entirely possible for European countries within a reasonable span to earn from the Western Hemisphere all the dollars they need to buy those services that can be earned only in America."

To make up a deficiency of $2,750,000,000 is a big order. Yet Hoffman is a hard-headed businessman who hardly can be labeled a foolish optimist.

There is evidence he believes Europe can do the dollar-earning job it must do only if it wakes up fully to the needs and characteristics of the American market. In other words, to sell successfully in the United States means to adopt our selling methods, to tailor products to fit our wants. For the most part European countries make little effort in this direction now; virtually the whole road is ahead of them.

Their task is getting tougher by the day, because the United States is becoming increasingly self-sufficient in many fields. But unquestionably the approach is the only one likely to be effective in developing some sort of reasonable balance of trade between the United States and Europe.

Furthermore, as Hoffman has reminded ECA countries, Europe has to be a better buyer as well as a better salesman. To qualify on that score, the component nations must draw together to make a single great market like that in America. Europe will then be a far better outlet for its own goods, and a likelier prospect for American products.

"Kelly" To Start 4-H Fund

Ronnie Hubbard of Virginia is proud of "Kelly," Poised Shorthorn steer which was purchased for him by Kelly Jackson, 4-H club work enthusiast who perished in a Wisconsin resort cabin fire last March. The calf now weighs 830 pounds and promises to be one of the outstanding features of the livestock auction to be held at the fair at 1 p.m. Saturday. He won the reserve championship Friday afternoon. "Kelly" is expected to bring a good price, since the net proceeds of his sale price will go into a Kelly Jackson Memorial fund to be used for helping future 4-H members buy good livestock for their projects. Trustees of the fund will be Steven Treadway, left, Virginia 4-H leader, and Mrs. Jackson.

VFW To Have Dividend Applications Aug. 29

Announcement was made at the meeting of Morgan County Post 1379, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held Thursday evening at the V.P.W. home, that the National Service Life Insurance dividend applications would be available at the home on Aug. 29.

The applications, in the form of a two-fold postal card, are to be filled out by the veteran and mailed to the address furnished on the form. Information called for includes: name of veteran; permanent mailing address; service serial number; branch of service; date of birth; insurance numbers, including prefix N. V. or H. V. A. claim, if any, and applicant's signature.

When the applications are received at the V.A. office, the lower portion of the card will be detached and sent back to the applicant as a receipt, stamped with the applicant's dividend number.

The approximate amount each eligible veteran will receive as a dividend payment can be fairly accurately determined by adding up the amounts paid in premiums from the effective date of the policy to its 1948 anniversary date; the total then should be divided by three to ascertain the approximate amount of the dividend payment.

Improvements at Home
At the meeting, final plans were drawn for the construction of a new entrance and enlarged parking facilities at the home, Ralph Gruen, co-chairman of the grounds committee, asked members to report at the home Sunday morning to assist in this work.

A report of the executive committee was presented on the proposed enlargement of the home. The installation of a sound system for the meeting room was also discussed. Commander Earl B. Jordan appointed Charles McDewitt and Charles Bell to investigate this project.

It was voted to lease the V.P.W. softball squad with a dinner at the end of the ball season, Jack Andrews was appointed by the commander as chairman of the entertainment committee for the year.

Earl Wallis served as adjutant in the absence of Lyle Morris, who is in summer training at Camp McCoy with the reserve units and the National Guard from this locality.

Two new members were accepted. They are Lester W. Harfield and Myrl McEvers.

Trainee Nursery Footman England's Infant Prince Charles Acquires A Youthful Manservant

MICHAEL SAWYER: His big adventure is serving the British royal family as "trainee nursery footman." Michael (center) has already had other honors, such as when he captained his primary school football team in his home town, Chatham.

By NEA Foreign Service
Whidestham Moor, England — (NEA—Prince Charles, the future King of England, is not yet a year old, but he already has a personal bodyguard. Sixteen-year-old Michael Sawyer, the son of a village constable, who wrote that he wanted to serve the royal family, has the job.

The tall, rosy-cheeked youth will stay with the Prince until he ascends the throne, which may not be for 60 years. Michael's official title is now "trainee nursery footman to Prince Charles of Edinburgh." His official duties are to guard the pram when it is wheeled to Windesham Village, and to wait on the Prince, and his nurse, Helen Lightfoot, at meal times.

But, as Prince Charles grows up, Michael's duties will become more important. He will become number one footman, as more men are drafted into the Prince's service. He may accompany the Prince to his first public school and army post.

Most of his life, Michael wanted to be near the royal family. He hoarded clippings and pictures of them in his white-washed room in the Sawyers' red-bricked police house in Chatham, Kent. Because of his fondness for horses, he had hoped for a post as stable boy in the Royal Mews.

When he was about to leave school, he wrote a letter to King George at Buckingham Palace, asking for the stable boy position. He got the job, but couldn't find a place to live near the stables, so he wrote again, asking for an indoor job.

Because of his desire to serve the royal family, he was given an interview. His eagerness and will to please won him the post with Prince Charles.

In his home town of Chatham, his position has brought mingled reactions from the townspeople.

"He's just an ordinary boy who's got an ordinary job," said one. "All this hullabaloo in the papers you would think he was the Prime Minister or someone."

But Percy Beck, whose sweetshoped into the Prince's service. He has been patronized by Michael since he was a tot, thinks the trainee nursery footman is "such a nice, friendly, outspoken boy."

Michael himself cannot be reached for his reactions to his new job. An official voice on the royal telephone says, "This is a private residence, and it is quite impossible to talk to one of the servants."

But most of the residents of this quiet village seem to think that Michael is finding the job as exciting as he had thought it would be. "It is a big adventure for the lad," they say.

India Plans Strategic Rule Of Princedom

New Delhi—(AP)—The government of India proposes to take over the administrations of the two strategic princedom of Tripura and Manipur in Assam province. Tripura is surrounded on three sides by eastern Pakistan and on the east by Assam. Manipur has a wide vulnerable common frontier with Burma and during the last war the Japanese posed their attack on India through Manipur.

Tripura is 4,000 square miles in area and has a population of 500,000. Manipur, with more than double the area, has about the same population.

Manipur has had a history of repeated wars with Burma. Its vulnerable valley, 50 miles long and 20 miles wide, provided convenient route for invaders of India from the beginning of the 18th Century to the last war. The young Maharajah of Manipur married for the fourth time in 1943 because palace astrologers had predicted the lucky stars of the new bride would ward off the Japanese. But India prefers to strengthen its defenses by direct administration rather than depend on lucky stars of royal brides.

Says King's English Is Washed Up

Sydney—(AP)—The King's English, says Sidney J. Baker, is all washed up. The language, he says, will one day be replaced by American-English. Baker is an Australian lecturer and journalist who has made a study of Australian speech.

This is an example he gave. "Shove this spin down south, and mote down to the rubbity for a fiddle's worth of bombo. My sort's rat-bag cobbles are turning on a shivoo sarvo. Dine your jacket and get your chop of the plonk, why don't you? With all the galabs and dills that'll drag on this yike, it'd be ridge to have someone who's a wake-up to jabber with."

This, Baker said, is a free translation: "Take this five pounds and hurry down to the hotel for one pound worth of wine. My girl friend's eccentric acquaintances are having a party this afternoon. Leave your work and take a share of the liquor, why don't you? Anyway, with all the unimportant people who will be there, I would like to have someone intelligent to talk to."

Bosox Near Yanks With Double Win Over White Sox

Chicago, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox powered 33 hits, nine for extra bases, to sweep a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox, 11-4 and 10-7, before 18,847 persons today. Pending the result of the New York-Cleveland game tonight, the Red Sox chopped a full game off the Yankees' league lead.

Mel Parnell became the first major league pitcher to win 20 games as he yielded seven hits in the opener. Ted Williams smashed his 21st and 32nd home runs. This left Ted one behind teammate Vern Stephens in the home derby.

In the second game Bob Kuzava, Chicago pitcher, tied an American league record with six straight strikeouts. Six American leaguers share the mark, matched last by Cleveland's Bob Feller in 1938.

Later Kuzava was kayoed by a line drive off the bat of Al Zarilla. He was taken to Mercy hospital with bruised ribs on his left side.

The Red Sox hammered three first game pitchers for 17 hits, eight for extra bases. In the second game the Red Sox powered 16 blows.

Pete Donat Fires Way To Victory In U.S. Trapshoot

Vandalia, O., Aug. 26.—(AP)—In the most thrilling finish in the 50-year-old classic ever witnessed, Pete Donat, 31-year-old farmer from Antwerp, Ohio, today fired an extraordinary field goal to victory in the golden grand handicap trapshoot.

The six-foot, two-inch Buckeye crackshot—15th Ohioan to win trapshooting's greatest honor—broke 100 straight to tie I. W. Sonderman, 47-year-old Lima, Ohio, mechanic, and then defeated him, 23-21, in a nervous shoot-off.

Each fired from 20 yards in beating out a field of 1758, second largest in grand American history.

Donat and Sonderman split the money prizes and each was expected to take around $7,000.

Donat, who farms 180 acres, came here today for the grand American handicap. He did not compete in any of the other shoots this week.

His winning weapon was a hunting pump gun borrowed from his father-in-law, Weldon Powell.

Baseball Standings

New York, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The New York Giants finally caught up to one of their big tormentors today when they shelled Garry Staley from the mound and beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2.

The loss by the Cards cut their National league margin to one game over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Staley, before today, had hurled 37 innings against the Giants and had permitted but two runs. Of his eight triumphs four had been chalked up against Lea Durocher's operatives.

The game was enlivened by a second inning argument in which Coach Manager Lea Durocher, Coach Fred Fitzsimmons, Wes Westrum and Hank Behrman were ejected from the park. The original argument was between Umpire Lou Jorda and Fitzsimmons when Jorda called Joe Lafata out on an attempted steal of second base.

Fitzsimmons was ejected first, then the others when they took up the argument.

For six innings, Staley looked as though he was going to cash in again. He was coasting along on a 2-1 lead going into the bottom half of the seventh. Then things began to happen, and when it was all over the Giants had notched three tallies, enough for the game.

The giants had scored once in the second on a home run by Hank Thompson but the Cards came back with two in the third on a round tripper by Marty Marion with Staley on base.

Bums Get 6 Hits
Brooklyn, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The lowly Chicago Cubs prevented the Brooklyn Dodgers from gaining ground on the St. Louis Cardinals tonight by beating the Brooks, 4-2. As a result, the Cards, defeated by New York in a day game, retained their one and one half game lead over the Dodgers.

Three Chicago pitchers limited the Dodgers to six hits. Bob Rush was yanked in the fifth because of shoulder trouble and Bob Muncie, credited with the victory, quit at the end of the eighth because of a blister. Doyle Lake finished.

Hank Sauer, driving in three of the Cub runs with a double and single was the hitting star.

The Cubs scored three of their runs against Joe Hatten, belting him out in less than three innings.

DETROIT BLASTS WASHINGTON 11-1
Detroit, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers fattened up their batting averages today as they rapped out 16 hits while walloping the luckless Washington Senators 11-1.

Three home runs rattled off the Detroit bats as the Tigers ran their winning streak to five games. It was their 15th win of the campaign against the Senators, who have taken only four from Detroit.

Vic Vito led the Tiger sluggers as he banged his 18th home of the year and his fourth in four days. Aaron Robinson contributed his No. 11 and Hoot Evers hit his sixth.

American Davis Cup Team Defeats Aussies Twice In Singles

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 26.—(AP)—The American Davis cuppers knocked the challenging Australians back on their heels by winning both of today's opening singles matches at Forest Hills, but it took every ounce of tennis they had in their systems to do it.

The peerless Ted Schroeder, this country's No. 1, was forced to fight from behind to the limit of five sets before he subdued a stubborn, net-playing Billy Sidwell, 6-1, 5-7, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In the ensuing battle of national champions, Pancho Gonzales had to turn on the full force of his powerful service to outscore 21-year-old Frank Sedgman in three brilliant sets, 3-6, 6-4, 3-7. Pancho lost his blazing delivery only once, and that was the difference.

An estimated crowd of 8,000 sat through four and a half hours of absorbing tennis under a torrid sun as the Aussie apparently once more saw their hopes of taking the prized trophy back to the land down under go glimmering.

Now they face the monumental task of winning tomorrow's doubles as well as the two concluding singles on Sunday in order to capture the big cup. They turned such a trick back in 1939, the last time they won a challenge round from the U. S., but it looks beyond them this time.

As a result of his sparkling play against Schroeder, especially in the forecourt, Sidwell was nominated by the Aussies to pair with veteran John Bromwich in the doubles. Sedgman had been a possibility, Gardner Mulloy and Billy Talbot were out to clinch the cup for this country.

Ties Strike Out Record, Downed By Line Drive
Chicago, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Bob Kuzava, young left-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, was knocked out by a line drive and carried from the field on a stretcher shortly after he tied an American league record by striking out six straight Boston Red Sox batters today.

A liner from the bat of Al Zarilla struck Kuzava on the left side just above the belt line. Preliminary examination indicated Kuzava suffered fracture ribs. He was removed to Mercy hospital for X-rays. The mishap happened in the third inning of the finale of a twin bill.

Bob Feller of Cleveland last equalled the six straight strikeout record on Oct. 2, 1938. Kuzava is the sixth American leaguer to tie the mark.

After Boston scored a first inning run, Kuzava struck out the side, getting Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr on missed third strikes, and the inning ended when Zarilla was called out.

Braves Take Reds In 3-2 Contest
Boston, August 26.—(AP)—Al Dark's two out single in the ninth drove in a pair of runs that gave the Boston Braves a 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds tonight before a 12,425 crowd. That frame was the only troublesome spot Johnny Vander Meer, the Reds' veteran left hander, encountered while totaling eight strikeouts and giving up as many hits.

Walker Cooper filed in Lloyd Merriman with the first Cincinnati run in the fourth inning and the Reds pulled into a 2-0 lead in the seventh, when Ted Kuszewski lined a homer, his second in two nights here, into the right field pavilion.

The first Boston run came in the seventh.

Cleveland Downs N. Y. Yankees 5-3
Cleveland, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians knocked the league leading Yankees to within 11 games of Boston's Red Sox tonight, defeating New York 5 to 3. Manager Lou Boudreau and left fielder Dale Mitchell accounted for four Cleveland runs by belting singles with the bases loaded.

Al Benton matched slants on the mound with Vic Raschi and Benton proved a little tougher.

For the first seven innings he held the Yanks to three scratch hits off third baseman Kenny Keltner's glove. One of those was by Joe DiMaggio and it punched home a run in the first inning.

But Boudreau's two-run single came up in the next frame, and Joe Gordon belted his 18th home run in the fifth.

MAN KILLED AS LIGHT PLANE CRASHES
Elgin, Ill., Aug. 26.—(AP)—A man carrying papers bearing the name of J. Preston Minch, 359 Webster avenue, Elmhurst, Ill., was killed today when his light plane crashed into a field.

The accident occurred along Higgins road, east of Roselle road in Cook county, 12 miles east of Elgin. A passing motorist said he saw the plane flying north at about 1500 feet. He said it suddenly banked to the southeast and headed directly toward the ground.

It took state police an hour to extricate the victim's body.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Livestock trading dulled off for the week and today with hogs steady to 50 cents lower, cattle generally 50 cents, 50 cents to $1.00 lower, and ewes steady.

Barrows and gilts sold within a $17.00 to $21.00 bracket, topping sparingly at $21.25. Sows made $14.50 to $18.25 mostly with a few edging up to $18.50. Clearance was good.

A load of choice steers and some mixed brought $27.75. Some scattered loads and lots made $23.00 to $25.50. Beef cows sold from $17.00 downward, sausage bulls from $20.50, and vealers from $27.00.

Native slaughter lambs topped at $24.00 but little was available above $23.00. Westerns were absent, as were choice yearling wethers. Medium to good offerings in the latter group were removed from trading under lower bids. Ewes fetched $8.50 and below.

Included in the estimated run were 5,000 hogs, 1,000 cattle, 200 calves, and 1,000 sheep.

SOYBEAN WEAKNESS UNSETTLES OTHER COMMODITIES
Chicago, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Weakness in soybeans unsettled other commodities on the Board of Trade today. Showing an easier undertone all session, beans fell at a faster rate late in the day, losses ran to several cents on fairly heavy volume.

This brought some nervous selling into other pits. Only corn displayed resistance to the pressure. Earlier, the yellow grain made gains of a cent, September leading. The first new corn of the season arrived at Kansas City, coming from Oklahoma.

Wheat got off to a steady start on small mill buying, but faded toward the close. September fell under $2.00. Oats and rye followed the same pattern as the bread cereals.

Receipts were: wheat 11 cars, corn 50, oats 31, rye 3, barley 6, soybeans 2.

Wheat closed 8-1/2 lower, September $1.98; corn was 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, September $1.24-1/2. Oats were unchanged to 1/4 lower, September 66-68; rye was 1-1/2 lower, September $1.42; soybeans were 4-6 1/2 lower, November $2.35-2.35, and active land futures were 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $12.35.

New York Stock Market
New York, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The stock market jogged along lazily in slightly lower price ground today.

Losses didn't amount to much, although a couple of recently popular oil stocks lost more than a point—and numerous shares either remained at Thursday's final levels or gingerly moved ahead.

Marked down included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Schenley, General Electric and International Paper.

Tending upward were Republic Steel, Studebaker, Sears Roebuck, International Harvester, Zenith Radio and American Tobacco.

Corporate bonds followed the same narrow route as stocks.

Roger Drew Of Navy Wants To Carry Ball, Not Kick Conversions

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Roger Drew of Navy wouldn't mind very much if people just forgot he kicked those three extra points that tied Army last year.

He'd rather carry the ball than kick it.

And the square-built, Shakespeare-reading midshipman from suburban Chicago is in the midst of a scorching three-way battle for fullback on Navy's 1949 eleven.

"The kid is so fascinated by the overall game of football that he refuses to be tagged a specialist," Coach George Sauer said today.

"He wants to play fullback, run with that ball and block," Sauer added, without a trace of disappointment.

"A couple of other fullbacks I know had better start worrying about this placekicker of ours."

Drew, an anonymous man in uniform most of last season, is a compact 180 pounds. He stands only 5-foot-8 and has to look up to everyone else in Navy's backfield cadre.

"Awfully small," Sauer commented, "but sure wound tight."

The 21-year-old second classman who played a year at Illinois before getting an academy appointment came almost from nowhere to earn his letter in 1948. Until mid-season he toiled with the junior varsity. Then little Jimmy Willis, who was kicking points after Navy's scarce touchdowns, hurt his leg.

Drew was called up to the varsity. Eight times he trotted on the field and eight times the ball soared through the uprights. His last three points—after a touchdown—put the climactic touch on Navy's 21-21 upset stalemate with Army.

That was just about the sum of Drew action. Now he's just as soon not be specialists, thank you.

Drew started playing football in grammar school. He was named all-suburban fullback and won all-state honorable mention at New Trier Township high school, near Chicago.

He has two more years at the Naval Academy, then wants to be a flier. In spare moments he likes to play chess, read Shakespeare—and think about playing fullback.

Pitches No-Hitter For 8 2-3 Frames But Team Loses
Beardstown—Charlie Hatfield, former Bluffs high and Knox college star, pitched ballless ball for 8 and two-thirds innings last Sunday for the Bluffs team as they played Beardstown, but his team lost 6-5 in the 13th frame.

After two outs in the ninth inning and with a count of two and nothing on the batter, the next pitch was hit for a single, scoring the tying run from third. Hatfield kept on hurling as the game went into extra innings and was finally replaced in the 13th by Al Marshall, an I.C. student, who was the loser.

The Bluffs squad connected for a total of 13 hits, but tallied only five runs. Beardstown had only six safeties, but grouped them with five Bluff bobbles to score 6 runs and win the game.

Browns Wallop Athletics 11 To 3
St. Louis, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Two home runs by Stan Spence, good for five runs, helped the St. Louis Browns steam-roller the Philadelphia Athletics tonight, 11 to 3. The victory enabled the Browns to vacate the American league cellar in favor of the Washington Senators, who lost to Detroit.

Pittsburgh Edges Philadelphia 3-2
Philadelphia, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Ralph Kiner's 36th homer of the season, a mighty blast on the roof of the left field stands in the third inning, gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies tonight.

Kiner's wallop, coming with one out, broke a 1-1 deadlock and gave Bill Werle his 10th victory of the season. Ken Heintzelman was charged with the defeat, his sixth.

He has won 15.

Steps to the Moon

THE STORY: Excerpted by her family to marry wealthy Harry Gagnel, Fritz is determined to avoid the young man's proposal because she is also fond of a young man named Barry. She is determined to marry Barry, but her father, who is a doctor, is determined to see that she marries Harry. Fritz is determined to marry Barry, but her father, who is a doctor, is determined to see that she marries Harry.

up, she found hers next to Fritz's. He said, "Hello, gorgeous. So you're back in circulation."

Gaynel said she did not know she had ever been out of it.

"You haven't had much time for me since you got back," Fritz reminded.

He looked very placid, for Fritz, in white tie and tails. Very much as though he belonged in Bessie's smart crowd.

GAYNEL was not at all sure she liked him that way.

Bessie said, "Fritz has been squiring me around while you were away. We've been seeing quite a lot of each other. I suppose now that you're back and Pat's on the mend, I'll be the one there won't be time for."

Then this wasn't just a fling for an evening. She hardly could have expected Fritz to sit and pine, while she had been away. But he certainly hadn't lost much time. Unless Bessie had done the pursuing.

Gaynel knew Bessie well enough to know that if she wanted anything, she went after it. Bessie's father was automotive, too. Custom-made bodies. Bessie had done a pretty good job on her own. It was long and slim and suave. She had to make the most of it. She was not a pretty girl. Her hair was too red, her freckles too generous. She could afford to be generous. With all her father's money she usually got what she wanted.

"Will you shake a wicked hip with me?" Fritz asked, when the music started again.

Lightweight Steers Win Championship, Reserve At Cass County Fair

Virginia—Two smaller steers, an Angus and a Short-horn, defeated their bulkier brothers in Friday's fat stock show of the Cass county 4-H fair and then came through to win the purple and reserve ribbons. The judges, Harry Russell and Dick Carlisle of the University of Illinois, declared the quality of the entries surpassed all other 4-H shows they have seen this year.

Blacky, 900 pound Angus who topped his class at the Illinois State Fair this year, came through to deliver the grand championship to his youthful owner, Jimmy Webster. His victory was threatened by the trim Short-horn champion, Kelly, shown by Benny Hibbard.

Today's Schedule Cass 4-H Fair

9 a.m.—Parade of prize winning livestock, western and riding horses, floats, bicycles and pets.

10:30 a.m.—Awarding of parade prizes.

1 p.m.—Sale of prize winning livestock.

9 p.m.—Free public dance on Virginia square.

A capacity crowd thronged the big tent Friday night to see sponsors Robert Maddox and his string of excellent Guernsey cattle dominated the dairy class. His yearling heifer won the purple ribbon.

Ashland Lamb Wins Eleanor Platner of Ashland showed the champion fat lamb and Betty Dickey of the Philadelphia community won the purebred ewe ribbon with her Oxford. The grade ewes shown by Larry Strubbe, Vera Hendrick and Richard Miller each received an A rating. Betty Dickey had the top ram lamb and Gene Armstrong took first with his ewe lamb.

Benny Hibbard, a consistent winner at the Cass show, had the grand champion barrow, a 215 pound Berkshire. Although Spotless Poland Chinas dominated the classes, the reserve barrow was a Duroc owned by Ray Allen Cox.

Henry Carls showed the best purebred gilt, a Spotted Poland China. Winning this award is almost becoming a habit, for his purebred gilts have won the purple ribbon three years in a row.

Best Litter, Pen Vernon Anderson had the grand champion boar, a Spot. The top litter and pen of barrows were won by Jimmy Smith and his Spotted Poland Chinas.

There were 18 entries in the Angus lightweight class and 19 in the heavyweights. The latter group was judged the toughest of the day. After long appraisal of the lot the judges gave eight of the entries an A rating, eight of them a B and the other three C ratings.

The Hereford classes were much smaller and, according to the judges, lacked the quality of their black and white brethren. Five lighter steers and only six heavy individuals were brought into the show ring. Only two A awards were given to the champion shown by Ernest Lauer and the reserve shown by Wayne Strubbe.

Seventeen Short-horn steers were paraded before the large crowd of admirers, recalled "I can remember when there were more Herefords shown than Angus and Short-horns put together."

Prize winning entries will be sold Saturday afternoon, beginning at 10 a.m.
